Specialized Zone

● <ifia> Food Safety Science Zone

This zone featured scientific evidence on food security and safety such as Inspection techniques on Anti-allergy, Anti-noro virus, Agricultural chemicals, and Micotoxin, Microorganism inspection, Sanitation management system, Traceability, Technology on Food safety and quality improvement. Targeted visitors included; Researchers dealing with food safety, and quality control, Quality manager, Food manufacturing technologists, etc.

● <ifia> Omotenashi Zone

This zone combined with Delicious Healthy Bakery Corner, UMAMI zone, and low-salt corner, which attracted ifia/HFE visitors in 2015. Exhibitors introduce their ingredients supporting delicious and healthy food with seminars and sample food tasting.

● <ifia> Functional food labeling Utilization Corner

This zone focused on “Functional food labeling system” which started on April, 2015 in Japan. Exhibitors introduce services for supporting functional food labeling, such as collecting evidence, or introduce functional food ingredients.

● <HFE> Sports Nutrition Corner

This Corner featured evidence based ingredients/materials that promote enhancement of motor function, anti-fatigue, such as Amino acid, Peptide, Astaxanthin, L-carnitine, Glucosamine, Collagen, Coenzyme Q-10, CLA (conjugate linoleic acid), DHA, MSM, etc. Targeted visitors included; Sports industry related firms, Functional beverage manufacturers, Research & Product development & Manufacturing of nutritional supplement, etc.

● <HFE> Ninja Foods Corner

This corner focused on Ninja Foods , such as Hyourougan. Today, ninjas are really famous all over the world and entertainment shows about ninja take place all over the world. Ninja was crucial and they were very particular about their food intake. They cooked their portable rations as small and as well-nourished as possible. Hyourougan(兵糧丸) was one of them. Hyourougan is made from nonglutinous rice, fruits of the lotus, yams, Coix ,ginsengs, and crystal sugar. The taste of this food is like cinnamon and herbal medicine, and the food texture is like dumplings. In addition, Shuriken experience corner by Iga Ueno Tourism Association was also popular.

This corner aims at publicizing “Ninja Foods” overseas while combining their traditional lifestyle and culture .
